

Ben Strole
504 W. Lincoln Rd.
Kokomo, Indiana 46902
Cell Phone: 765-404-4433
bstrole@purdue.edu

Objective: To become a mathematics teacher in a school with a diverse student population, where I can use my formal studies in mathematics education and social work to help students realize the significance and importance of their culture and to help them value themselves and realize their potential.

Education: Kokomo High School, Kokomo, IN
Academic Honors Diploma (10.75 on a 12 point scale)
August 2000-June 2004

Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN
Bachelor of Arts, Mathematics Education & Social Work
In Progress; expected graduation: spring 2009

Work Experience

June 2002 to present K-Mart, Kokomo, Indiana
Sales Associate

- Cross-trained in Electronics, Sporting Goods, Service Desk, and Layaway
 - Demonstrated commitment to team work & service excellence

January 2006 – May 2006 Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN Peer Leader
EDCI 285: Multicultural Education (unpaid)

- Facilitated class discussions addressing gender, sexual preference, discrimination, and
- Edited student essays and biographies
- Selected class readings on Special Education and Race Relations

August 2006 – May 2007 Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN Research Assistant: Psychology Education

June 2006 Pioneers In Education (www.pioneersineducation.org)
Pioneer Student Leadership Academy Intern

- Academy on preparing students to be leaders in society

Additional Information:

- 2004-2005 Purdue Opportunity Scholarship
- 2005 Howard County Community Foundation Scholarship

References: Available Upon Request